

175th ANNIVERSARY EVENT – SATURDAY 10 JULY 2021

FREE TOURS (1 hour)

Sign up at the Tour Tent on the Main Lawn. Numbers are limited, on a first come first served basis.

Time	Guide	Tour Title	Tour Description	Max No
11.00	Beverley Glover Director - CUBG	Director's favourites	Join Professor Beverley Glover for a look at her favourite picks of the Garden	10
11.30	Will Mullen – Garden Guide	Seasonal highlights	Exploring what's looking good in the Garden today, with a closer look at some of our Champion trees	10
12.00	Sally Petitt Head of Horticulture	Garden stars	A look at some of the plants that have been integral to CUBG history	10
12.30	Helen Seal – Garden Guide	Science and imagination	A tour looking at how our garden stories illuminate plant science	10
12.45	Richard Price – Garden Guide	Seasonal highlights	Your Guide's choice of the plants and trees that are looking at their best at this time of year	10
13.00	James Mendelssohn – Garden Guide	Garden of inspiration	Reflections on some of the ideas that make CUBG special. A place for understanding the natural world	8
13.15	Andrew Travers – Garden Guide	Nature's wars	How CUBG revolutionised how we think about botany and evolution	10
13.30	Mike Nott – Garden Guide	Big, small and sometimes odd	A light hearted look at some interesting plants	10
14.00	Elizabeth Rushden – Garden Guide	CUBG Garden history	Key developments in the Botanic Garden from its inception to the present day	7
14.30	Pam Dansie – Garden Guide	Personalities of the Botanic Garden	Looking at three significant personalities in the development of CUBG	8
15.00	Richard Price – Garden Guide	Seasonal highlights	Your Guide's choice of the plants and trees that are looking at their best at this time of year	10
15.30	James Mendelssohn – Garden Guide	Garden of inspiration	Reflections on some of the ideas that make CUBG special. A place for understanding the natural world	8
16.00	Andrew Travers – Garden Guide	Nature's wars	How CUBG revolutionised how we think about botany and evolution	10
16.30	Pam Dansie – Garden Guide	Personalities of the Botanic Garden	Looking at three significant personalities in the development of CUBG	8